

CIVIL SERVICE SET NEAT TRAP.

Nearly 1,200 Would-Be Policemen Had Questions All Solved in Advance.

BOUGHT "EXAM." PAPERS

But When They Got to the Examination Hall a New Set of Questions Was Asked and There Was Gnashing of Teeth

Final examination as to mental qualifications sufficient to insure them places on the police force was undergone by 1,200 young men in Grand Central Palace to-day. These are left of 4,000 examined a few weeks ago. The Civil-Service people say it is the finest lot of would-be cops ever assembled to take the examinations.

There was weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in a figurative sense when the 1,200 gathered this morning. The young man who aspires to be a policeman takes no chances. After getting to the point where he can take the examination he gets hold of the questions that are to be asked and makes himself letter perfect on the answers. By hook or crook this advantage is gained in nearly every examination.

It came to the knowledge of the Civil Service Board that through some leak a majority of the men started for examination to-day had secured a full set of papers. An entirely new lay-out of questions was prepared and printed, and when the wise men appeared this morning with their answers nicely written out and in shape to be concealed in the palms of their hands, they were astounded to find that the answers they had did not correspond with the questions on the papers handed them. As some of the candidates had paid as high as $50 for their advance information, there was considerable soreness.

The men were examined in spelling, arithmetic, writing, city information and the rules and regulations of the Department. Then they were given a memory test.

LITTAUER WINS UP-STATE FIGHT.

Congressman from Gloversville Victorious in Three-Cornered Contest and Gets Renomination.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Representative Lucius N. Littauer, of Gloversville, was this afternoon renominated by the Republican district convention. The vote stood: Littauer, 23, and L. W. Emerson, of Warren County, 11.

Mr. Littauer's district, under the State reapportionment, is the Twenty-fifth. He represented the Twenty-second District in the last House of Representatives.

A party fight was occasioned by the reapportionment of the district and the issue was sharp between Littauer, Emerson and Stewart.

Emerson fought it out with Littauer and was beaten two to one. President Roosevelt favored Littauer.

BEAUTIFUL SINGER VICTIM OF SUDDEN INDISPOSITION.

Alice Lorraine, Concert Soprano, Will Undergo Operation at Flower Hospital.

Miss Alice Lorraine

Alice Lorraine, the noted concert soprano, is seriously ill at the Flower Hospital, where she was taken to-day to undergo a critical operation. The singer's indisposition was sudden and unexpected. Only within a few days she returned from her vacation trip to begin preparations for a busy season on the concert stage.

Miss Lorraine had many inducements to sing in opera and vaudeville during the coming year, but she gave concert work the preference as it was less likely to impair her voice, which she is fostering for a grand opera career.

She will be remembered as the beautiful young woman who brought suit against the North German Lloyd Company for $500 because she was forced to give up her stateroom on the Kronprinz Wilhelm to Prince Henry of Prussia.

M'LAUGHLIN LAUDS HILL.

Brooklyn 'Boss' Thinks Senator Would Make a Very Superior President.

SOUTH JAMESPORT, L. I., Aug. 27.—Hugh McLaughlin is evidently not in entire sympathy with the present reported efforts of the party managers of Saratoga. On the side piazza of the Great Peconic Bay House this afternoon he said:

"I've talked politics with newspaper men a good deal lately, for me and my views are pretty well known on all questions bearing on this campaign. 'They've been pretty busy at Saratoga lately, haven't they?' he asked suddenly.

"Yes," the reporter replied, "within the last few days things seem to point in the direction of the candidacy of Chief Justice Parker, of the Court of Appeals, or perhaps of Justice Cullen. What do you think of Judge Parker or Justice Cullen as the candidate?"

"I think the efforts in that direction are foolish. If I had influence enough with either of those gentlemen to get him to give up his present desirable position I should not exert it. Don't misunderstand me. I say that no better man than either—no more honest or more economical—can be mentioned, and I am in hopes that the Democratic State Convention will select as competent and desirable a man as one of the two you have named.

"Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo," the reporter said, "says that the Democratic situation in the State seems to be in the hands of you and Mr. Hill, and that what you and the ex-Senator decide on will meet with hearty support of the New York State Democracy. You might relieve a good part of the public mind by indicating your choice for the head of the ticket."

"One or two men," the veteran leader replied promptly, "as I understand it, will not have the deciding of that question. Mr. Mack and other leading men throughout the State, I understand, will be called together and their best judgment directed to the selection of the strongest man to present to the people for their suffrage."

Tammany Hall Is Honest.
"Do you think that Tammany Hall is honest in its expressed allegiance to ex-Senator Hill?"

"Yes," the Kings County leader answered with emphasis.
"Do you not think that Coler, a man with a clean record and a host of friends in the Bryan faction, would make a strong candidate for Governor?"

"I have said words of praise of Mr. Coler as Comptroller of the City of New York, which referred to his ability and integrity, and I have been waiting since to see the Republican press criticize his conduct in that office. Have you seen or heard of any such criticism? It seems to me that if they could find room for criticism they would have unloaded it ere this."

BOER SYMPATHIZER RETURNS IN FLIGHT

James P. Canty, Who Was One of Larchmont's Wealthy Men, Went to South Africa to Fight.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Aug. 27.—James P. Canty, who served several terms as Justice of the Peace of Larchmont, is confined in the New Rochelle police station under the supposition that he is insane. City Health Officer Coddling and Dr. C. N. Raymond made an examination this afternoon and reported that Canty is the victim of hallucinations and may become violent.

A few years ago Justice Canty was one of the best known of the wealthy residents of Larchmont.

On the breaking out of the war in South Africa he became an enthusiastic admirer of the Boers. Unsuccessful in his efforts to recruit a company of his fellow Irishmen to enlist for the war on the Boer side, he started off alone. He was intercepted by English troops as he was endeavoring to enter the lines of the Boers. He had been confined in English prisons in South Africa and was released only about a month ago, when he started to return to his former home. It is feared that the confinement unbalanced his mind.

He is in terror of again being deprived of his liberty and regrets that he is not permitted to fight for the oppressed Boers.

CONVICTED OF THEFT OF HOLLAND'S PLANS

San Francisco Real Estate Man Found Guilty of Receiving Stolen Drawings of Torpedo Boats.

John Graham, forty-nine years old, a San Francisco real estate agent, was to-day convicted of criminally receiving stolen goods, knowing they had been stolen. He was remanded for sentence until Wednesday by Judge Foster.

Last April drawings, blue prints and specifications were stolen from the office of the Holland Torpedo Boat Company, of San Francisco. During the following month James H. Peter was discharged from the company's employ.

Soon afterward, it was charged, Graham went to the office of the Electric Boat Company at No. 10 Broadway and there saw Francis W. Brady, an engineer, and tried to negotiate for the sale of a portion of these plans to that company for $5000. The plans were incomplete and Brady refused to have anything to do with them.

A few days later Graham met Brady at the Hotel Rossmore and there endeavored to sell him a set of complete plans for $5000. Three days later Graham was arrested in the New Amsterdam Bank, where he had gone to get the money for the plans, detectives having watched him during that time. Peter was also arrested and pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing the plans. Then he appeared as chief witness against Graham.

Graham testified that he did not know that the plans had been stolen, but the case was dropped against him. Graham was remanded for sentence.

REV. DR. GALLAUDET, THE FRIEND OF THE DEAF, DEAD.

Expires After Fifty Years' Labor for the Stricken—Remarkable Story of Life Work.

REV. THOMAS GALLAUDET.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Gallaudet, the well-known educator of deaf mutes, rector emeritus of St. Matthew's Church and vicar of St. Ann's Church, died to-day at his home, No. 112 West Seventy-eighth street.

In 1835 he founded the Gallaudet home for deaf mutes near Poughkeepsie, and had made several trips to Europe in the interests of this branch of education.

Dr. Gallaudet was born in Hartford, Conn., in 1822. At an early age he interested himself in the education of deaf mutes and continued the work until the time of his death. He was graduated from Trinity College in 1842.

His Life Study for Stricken.

It was through the efforts of Dr. Gallaudet fifty years ago that St. Ann's Episcopal church, Eighteenth street and Fifth avenue, was the first church ever organized to furnish special religious ministrations to the deaf and dumb. This church alone has communicants numbering more than 2000.

Dr. Gallaudet's first actual work in the deaf and dumb language was when he found Cornelia Lathrop, dying of consumption and unable to speak, write, hear or receive spiritual consolation. He at once took up the work and St. Ann's Church was the result.

AGED PRIEST DIES OF HEART DISEASE.

Father Moyses, of West Springfield, Is Found Dead in His Room at the Everett House.

Father David Moyses, pastor of a Catholic Church in West Springfield, Mass., died some time during the night at the Everett House, Fourth avenue and Seventeenth street, where he had registered yesterday with his cousin, Miss J. A. Sullivan, also of West Springfield. The cause of death is believed to be heart disease.

The priest was seventy years old. He had been in failing health and was persuaded to take a vacation. To all appearances the priest was in his usual health when he retired last night. This morning Miss Sullivan knocked at the door of his room, and receiving no response, called the clerk. Father Moyses was found dead in bed.

Dr. George R. Foster, of No. 100 East Eighteenth street, was summoned, and pronounced the priest dead, probably, he said, from heart disease. Father Daly, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, was notified and communicated with the other fathers attached to the church at West Springfield.

DAUGHTER FATHER'S ADVOCATE.

TRIDENT, N. J., Aug. 27.—When Louis Levy, a grocer, of Broad and Allen streets, was arraigned in the Central Police Court for violating a city ordinance relative to blocking sidewalks with merchandise, his daughter, Fannie, a pretty black-eyed young woman, appeared in her father's behalf.

WITNESSES CALLED IN DIAMOND THEFT.

Grand Jury at Alexandria Bay To Take Up the Case in Which the Richmans Figure.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Interest in the Dellabarre-Richman diamond robbery which occurred at the Crossman House at Alexandria Bay on the evening of July 2 has been aroused again by the summoning of several of the residents of the town who were prominently connected with the case to appear before the grand jury at Waterson Nov. 5 to give testimony.

Those summoned are Detective William Jones, who ferreted out the robbery; Charles Witt, Chief of Police at Alexandria Bay, who assisted in the capture; Charles Crossman, proprietor of the Crossman House; Mrs. Dana, housekeeper of the Crossman House, who examined Mr. Richman and found the roll of bills concealed in her garments; and Lawyer John O'Leary, who was called to the hotel on the night of the robbery as the attorney for the proprietors.

Many people had believed that because of the high social position and great wealth of Mr. and Mrs. Richman that the case would never come to trial.

RAILROAD STRIKE OFF.
